THE Custom House notice of the 18th March 1903, published in this Paper on the 26th March 1903, concerning the procedure for the shipment of goods in urgent cases, has been cancelled, and the following is tentatively issued in its place.

The Superintendent of the Preventive Service is empowered to permit the shipment of free goods when urgently required after office hours or at the last moment to complete a vessel's cargo without the usual formalities, provided that the following precautions are observed:—

1. With vessels for Foreign Ports.—A written authority for the shipment of the goods from the Master or Chief Officer of the Vessel or from the Agents acting on behalf of the Master must be handed to the Preventive Officer on board, which he will forward, together with a list of the goods actually shipped on the first opportunity that occurs, to the Preventive Office, so that it may reach the Export Department as soon as office opens on the following morning. If the shipping bill is not presented in that Department by the Agents within 48 hours of the time of shipment, action will be taken against them under section 167, clause 56 of the Sea Customs Act.
